The Crying Cloud

Rain,
Come with a thunder and showers
on us,

For many it brings happiness,
For many, sorrow.

If the cloud cry's happily, it spreads happiness.

If cloud cry's badly, it brings to us sorrow.

Rain come with a thunder and shower on us.

Come happily,
Cry happily,
Fill us with joy and happiness,
Rain, Rain, come again.....

The Explorer

I wander as an explorer to gain new things.

To learn new things.

In my journey I have no stop.

I have to travel and I will travel because gaining knowledge does not have an end.

Explore... Explore... Explore...

The Song Of The Nature

Nature, if you were not there, this world would have been a silent and empty space,

Nature, you are a green gift of God to us,
You make us happy by showering on us rain
from the clouds,

You make us happy by the beautiful sound of the creatures of God,

You give us everything even if we don't give you anything.

You make our day a new day and a complete day.

You make us what we are,
Nature, your care for us is unconditional.

Nature, you make the world alive,
Everyday by your song.

Let your song make people happy today,
More happy tomorrow.
